

Want to be a Static Guard?

These are the top 5 qualities we look for...

#1 Smart appearance

First impressions count for us and for our clients...

We expect to see you looking smart at the interview stage and once uniformed and on site we expect to see you representing both Bridgegate Security and the client by looking smart and following uniform code at all times.

#2 Integrity

In a position of trust and responsibility you need integrity....

Guards who have worked for Bridgegate Security for many years share common characteristics of honesty and strong moral principles.

#3 A 'can do' attitude

Positive people make us feel positive...

As a member of the Bridgegate Security team we expect you to adopt our ethos of 'can do' positivity.

#4 Professionalism

As an SIA licensed professional show us your skills...

Being professional means using your training, your skills, good judgement, polite behaviour and following all codes of conduct and compliance procedures.

#5 Outstanding communication skills

Our clients rely on you to keep them informed...

You need to be able to greet and liaise with site visitors, complete patrol logs and pass on information to your site manager clearly and accurately.
